UCSF Mission Hall Research Study

Demographic Questions

Welcome!

Thank you for your participation in the Mission Hall Workplace Research Survey. This study is a joint effort between UCSF and the Center for the Built Environment at the University of California Berkeley.

This survey includes three unique sections: (1) Satisfaction, (2) Location, and (3) Environmental Quality. Satisfaction focuses on your experience in Mission Hall and the degree to which the building affects your day to day work. Location focuses on the various spaces in Mission Hall. Environmental Quality focuses on issues such as temperature, lighting and air quality. Each of these sections contributes to an overall understanding of the ways in which Mission Hall affects you and your work. As such it is valuable to have your feedback on all three.

Your feedback will provide valuable data that will be used to evaluate how successful the building is in supporting your work and in meeting its performance goals. Results (in summary form) will be presented to UCSF Administrative Leadership to help the university to improve its approach to designing academic work environments. Results will also contribute to prioritizing improvements at Mission Hall as well as to providing direction on future buildings elsewhere within UCSF.

Strict confidentiality of individual responses will be maintained.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SAN FRANCISCO
CONSSENT TO PARTICIPATE IN A RESEARCH STUDY

Study Title: UCSF Workplace Research - Mission Hall Evaluation: Occupant Survey

Welcome to the UCSF Mission Hall Workplace Research Survey!

UCSF commissioned a workplace research study to better understand the workspace design characteristics that optimally support the work of UCSF faculty and staff as well as to guide the planning, design, and use of future campus buildings. All faculty, staff and post docs who are assigned space in Mission Hall will be invited to participate in this study. The School of Medicine is working with a team of office workspace researchers from Perkins+Will, University of Michigan and Georgia Tech in conjunction with Dr. Nancy Adler as Principal Investigator, and with support from the Chancellor’s Office.

Why is this survey being done?
This survey is part of the larger research project. It has been developed in concert with the University of California Center for the Built Environment and has been beta-tested by a group of Faculty from the School of Medicine. The survey is intended to capture your perspectives about Mission Hall in relation to your previous work environment and in relation to the work that you do. The survey should take approximately 30 minutes. As in all of the Mission Hall research, results are aggregated and individual responses are anonymous.

Thank you for offering your feedback in this important research effort.

Can I stop being in the study?
Participation in the study is voluntary. You can decide to stop at any time. Potentially the study researcher may exclude your responses from the study if you do not follow the study directions, or if the study is stopped.

What side effects or risks can I expect from being in the study?
There are minimal risks associated with participation in this study. You are free to decline to answer any questions you do not wish to answer or to stop taking the survey at any time. Information you provide will remain strictly confidential, with access limited to the research staff only. Although improbable, if there was a data breach, supervisory personnel might gain access to personal opinions about the new Mission Hall workspace, or personal use patterns.

For more information about risks and side effects, ask one of the researchers.

Are there benefits to taking part in the study?
Although you may not directly benefit from this study, the research will be useful to inform potential adaptations to the Mission Hall building and will provide valuable input to the planning and design of workspace on campus.

Will information about me be kept private?
Information you provide will remain strictly confidential, with access limited to the research staff. Names will be separated from all recorded materials and code numbers will be inserted. Study results will be reported only in summary form. Names and other personal information will not be used in any report or publication.

We will do our best to make sure that the personal information gathered for this study is kept private. However, we cannot guarantee total privacy. Your personal information may be given out if required by law.

What are the costs of taking part in this study?
There are no costs to be charged to subjects.

Will I be paid for taking part in this study?
You will not be paid for taking part in this study.

What are my rights if I take part in this study?
Taking part in this study is your choice. You may choose either to take part or not to take part in the study. If you decide to take part in this study, you may leave the study at any time. No matter what decision you make, there will be no penalty to you in any way.

Who can answer my questions about the study?
You can talk to the principal researcher about any questions, concerns, or complaints you have about this study. Contact Janice Barnes at [Contact Information].

If you wish to ask questions about the study or your rights as a research participant to someone other than the researchers or if you wish to voice any problems or concerns you may have about the study, please call the Office of the Committee on Human Research at [Contact Information].

CONSENT: You can download a copy of this consent form to keep.

PARTICIPATION IN RESEARCH IS VOLUNTARY. You have the right to decline to be in this study, or to withdraw from it at any point without penalty or loss of benefits to which you are otherwise entitled.

Your continued participation in this online survey will signify your consent to participate.

If yes, how successful have those been? What has worked? What has not?
If there are aspects of your current workspace or building that do not work well, how might they be changed to make them more usable?

Do you have the resources you need as a building occupant?

- Yes

Section 2: Location

In this section we will ask you some questions about your perceptions of the location of your workspace. Results will help the research team to understand how your location relates to your overall experience in Mission Hall; the building’s ability to support your work through a variety of spaces and technologies; and your overall use patterns.

Completion of this section will help UCSF to further improve Mission Hall and will inform the planning for future UCSF facilities.
