Appendix 2. Incremental cost-effectiveness scatterplot using Monte Carlo simulation evaluating universal third-trimester syphilis rescreening compared with no rescreening. WTP, willingness-to-pay, represents the cost-effectiveness threshold of $285,000 U.S. dollars. The ellipse represents the 95% confidence interval.

The authors provided this information as a supplement to their article.

© Copyright 2015 American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists.