SDC 2: Compute tomography (CT) scan of the chest at the level of aortic arch. (2a) A plain image demonstrates a middle mediastinal mass with internal calcification (arrow). (2b) Contrast-enhanced image shows minimal rim enhancement of the mass leading to the suspicion of internal necrosis (arrow). The thymus appears normal (*).