A patient sustained a comminuted transverse plus posterior wall fracture as shown on the preoperative post-reduction AP radiograph.
Preoperative 3D CT Reconstruction
In the operating room, the patient was placed prone and the Ziehm RFD 3D C-arm unit was appropriately positioned.
Standard fluoroscopic imaging was performed, including the AP (A) and obturator oblique (B) views, showing reduction